

Journal of the Senate

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

VETO SESSION

SECOND DAY—THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2002

The Senate met pursuant to adjournment.

President Maxwell in the Chair.

The Reverend Keith Simon offered the following prayer:

Father God, a year ago today we were still in shock over the evil events that had transpired on September 11th. Today, this September 12th, we are still sobered by the reality of the human condition and human suffering. After a day of reflection and remembering those who so valiantly served their fellow citizens, I pray that these Missouri Senators would approach their work and responsibilities with the same attitude of service realizing that they do not serve themselves but all Missourians. They do not serve themselves but they serve You - the God who established government and who gave them their position. Father their task is not an easy one. Often it isn't clear what the right decision is. There is always pressure from the outside. I pray that You might give them wisdom and humility and courage. In Jesus Name we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was recited.

A quorum being established, the Senate proceeded with its business.
